GLOUCESTER RUGBY
SUPPORTERS PACKAGE TO SCOTLAND

GENERAL INFORMATION

We recommend you use the Scottish capital as your base where your centrally located accommodation will enable you to enjoy the historic sights of Edinburgh, such as the Castle and Princess Gardens. A visit to Rose Street with its mile long avenue of bars is recommended while the Murrayfield Rugby stadium is also a popular excursion for our rugby groups who visit Edinburgh.

Alternatively you may wish to stay in Glasgow, which is Scotland's largest city and steeped in history yet defined by innovation, Glasgow's breathtaking Victorian architecture and traditional welcoming embrace have provided a stately inheritance for the city's commercial resurgence and cultural vigour. Glasgow is also the host city for the Commonwealth Games in 2014

FRIDAY 11TH DECEMBER

You will assemble at your chosen airport for your flight to Scotland. On arrival you will transfer to your accommodation and depending on flight times you will have the afternoon to explore either of these magnificent cities.

You will then travel to the game at Firhill for a 19.30 Hour kick off:

After the game you will travel back to your accommodation where the rest of your evening is free to explore.

SATURDAY 12TH DECEMBER

This will be a free day where a trip to visit Edinburgh Castle on a city tour is highly recommended along with a tour of Murrayfield, the home of Scottish Rugby. In the evening, you can embark on a pub tour of the City

Alternatively a trip to Glasgow's Kelvingrove Art Gallery & Museum which has just undergone a three year refurbishment scheme is thoroughly recommended. Alternatively visit some of the many shops, bars or restaurants in this vibrant city.

SUNDAY 13TH DECEMBER

Subject to flight times the day will be free where you may wish to view more of your chosen city's sights before transferring to the airport for your return flight.
