FRIDAY 13th APRIL 2012

You will depart your club and either travel by coach or self drive to your accommodation. You will have the remainder of the day and night free to explore the park and use your leisure and entertainment passes, which are included in your tour costs.

Alternatively, subject to fixture schedules, you may wish to visit the nearby Parc y Scarlets to take in a Magners League Fixture at the home of the Llanelli Scarlets.

SATURDAY 14TH APRIL 2012: LLANELLI WANDERERS MINIS FESTIVAL OF RUGBY

In the morning you will make the short journey to Llanelli where you will take part in the Minis Festival. The Llanelli Festival has become the largest Mini Festival in Wales running from Under 8's to Under 12's. Once the presentations of the trophies and medals are complete you will travel back to your accommodation to continue your celebrations and enjoy the parks entertainment.

SUNDAY 15TH APRIL 2012: LLANELLI WANDERERS JUNIORS FESTIVAL OF RUGBY

The second day of the Festival for Under 13's & Under 15's will see the junior sides battle it out in a 15-a-side tournament. After the post match presentations have been made you will return to your accommodation to enjoy your final night at the park.

MONDAY 16th APRIL 2012

You will have the day free where you may wish to do some final sightseeing, such as to Carmarthen Castle before boarding your coach for your journey home, where on route you may wish to stop in Cardiff to take a tour of the Millennium Stadium.

Clubs travelling with only mini or junior teams may wish to visit the popular Oakwood Theme Park on their non tournament day for a day's adrenalin filled action. Alternatively, should your squad size satisfy RFU guidelines, you may wish to play a fixture against a team local to the area.
